

The internet – is it all bad?

Year 6 PSHE

Explore these questions and write down your thoughts and ideas for each one.

You can write in paragraphs or mindmap or even bullet point, it's up to you.

What electronic methods can children use to find out information and communicate with each other?

Which groups of people might have strong feelings about the internet being bad? What might their views be? What might they say?

What are the benefits of using new electronic technologies?

What are the risks of using electronic technologies?

Imagine that the internet crashes for a year. What would be the impact?

In seven years you will all be just about to finish your statutory state education.
How might computers and online activities change in this time?
Think about at school, at home and on-the-go.