

List it

Read the list introductions. Then add a colon and write a suitable list after each introduction, using semicolons to separate out the items.

Try to describe one or two of the items in each list with a longer phrase that includes a comma.

1. Types of shoes I own

2. Games you can play with a ball

3. Films I have watched

4. Children that sit on the same table as me

5. What I do when I get home from school

6. My favourite sandwich fillings

7. Animals you can see in a wildlife park

8. Things we have in the bathroom
