

Week beginning 8.2.21

English Focus: Stickman

Over the next few weeks we will be focusing on the story 'Stick Man' written by famous author Julia Donaldson. We are sorry that our book has not arrived yet, we are busy chasing it up. As soon as it arrives we will send a note via our Parent APP.

Activity 1: Choose a scene from the story and write down what you see in the picture.

Activity 2: Write some postcards that the Stick Man might send home to his family to tell them about his adventures.

Remember a postcard needs the following:

- The address it is being sent to.
- Needs to start with Dear
- Add interesting details but keep them short
- Finish with an sign off such as "lots of love.....love from....Yours sincerely....."

Activity 3: Spelling Activity

Today can you have a go at reading/spelling the following Common Exception Words. Can you write a sentence for each of these words please some	she	our	all	was

------	-----	-----	-----	-----

Activity 4: Watch this video showing the author reading the story. (click on the picture) Could you record your own retelling?

Activity 5: When Stick Man tries to escape from the fire, he makes lots of different types of movements (e.g. scratch, scrape, wiggle, jiggle, poke, shove, nudge, hop, jump). Can you think of any other words that can be used to describe movement?
