

Hello Year Two, I hope you are doing well. In music this week we are going to start by moving our bodies to get our brains ready. Can you follow the body percussion pictures and move in time to the music? Good luck 😊

Next, we have another wonderful piece of music to help us learn all about the orchestra and the different families or sections. Can you watch the video and listen to music? I hope you enjoy it.

To finish we have a funny rhyme to learn. Ignore the baby in the first part of the video, we are going to be doing lots of things with this rhyme, it's not just for babies!
