

Andy Warhol's life

Authors use adverbs of time and adverbials to link together different sentences so they make sense. Can you add one of the phrases below to these sentences and put them in the right order? The chapter about Andy Warhol will help with this.

Adverbials to include:

Later	During his teenage years	While at school	After
At this time	At the same time	As a boy	quickly In the 1950s

Andy Warhol was born in Pittsburgh, USA, to a poor family.

_____, Warhol took free art classes.

_____, his mother Julia gave him his first drawing lessons.

_____, he caught a disease called chorea, which meant a long recovery.

_____, Warhol began exhibiting his paintings, drawings and books in galleries.

Drawing _____ became Warhol's favourite pastime.

_____, Julia gave him a camera, and Warhol enjoyed taking photos.

_____, he moved to New York, where his work appeared in magazines and advertisements.

_____ his father died, Warhol trained as a commercial illustrator.

_____, Warhol also loved Hollywood movies and collected autographs from the stars.

Name that artist

- 1 This artist started off blue, but soon everything was rosy. _____
- 2 You can see paintings by this pioneering abstract artist in Liverpool's Tate Gallery. _____
- 3 Which artist felt that school was like a prison? _____
- 4 This artist's self-portraits often featured parrots. _____
- 5 Which artist made soup cans go pop? _____
- 6 Which artist would most people not recognise? _____
- 7 This artist's early paintings showed poverty and a potato.

- 8 Which artist paints prize-winning pumpkins? _____
- 9 Write your own quiz questions to test your friends, using information from this book.
 - a _____
 - b _____
 - c _____
 - d _____